

PRIVACY LEVER SET

FEATURES

70 SERIES

QUALITY BUILT . . . FOR LONGER LIFE

Both levers individually spring balanced.

Lock self-cancels when lever is depressed.

Double turn spindles permit independent lever action.

Positive lever stop resists internal mechanism damage.

Emergency opening slot.

Heavy duty torque springs to resist lever sag.

Mechanism adjustable for doors 1 $\frac{1}{16}$ " to 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ " thickness.
Mechanism for thicker doors available.

Internal mechanism made of wrought steel zinc plated and diechromated.

$\frac{1}{2}$ " throw spring latch.

All exposed parts have protective baked acrylic lacquer coating.

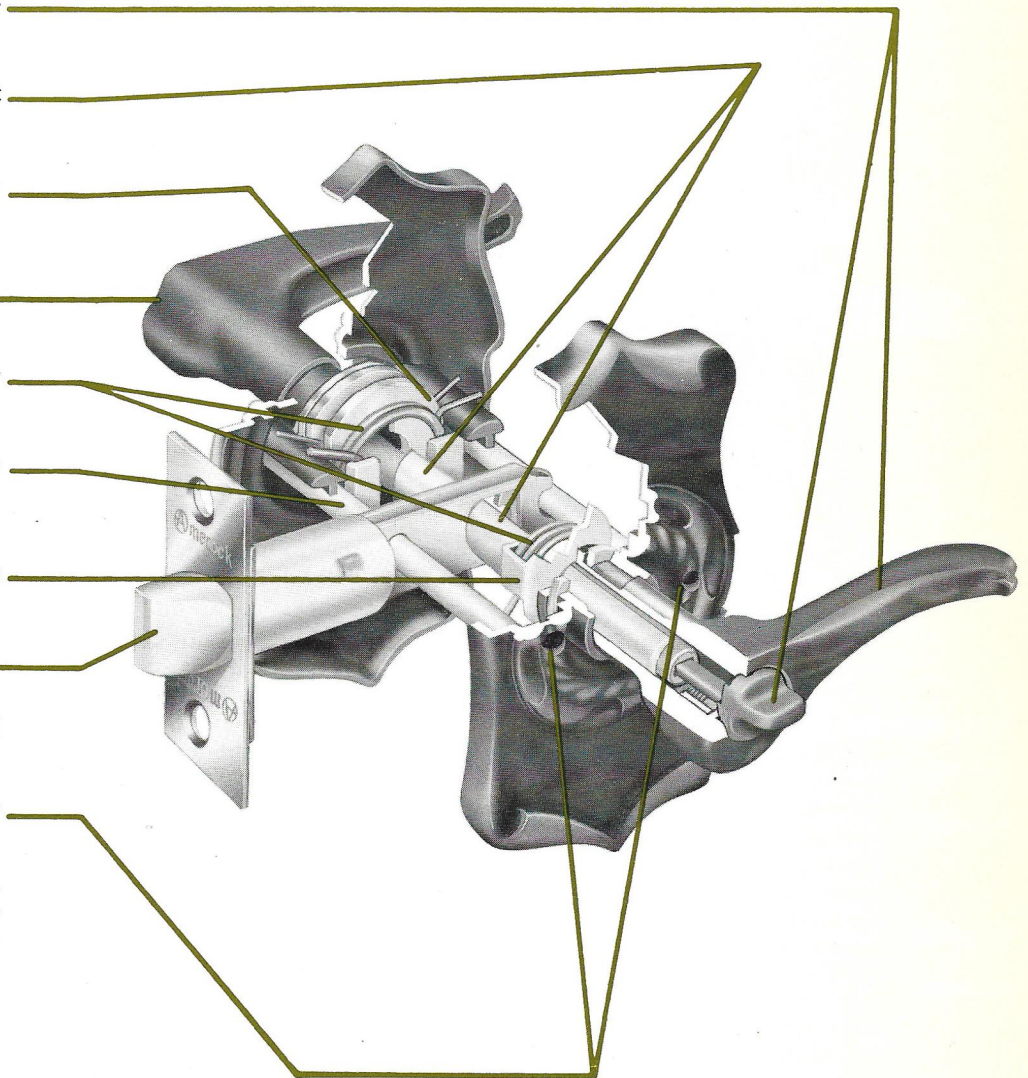

Two mechanism mounting screws for easy installation.

Latch and strike mounting screws combination wood/machine screws for application on wood or metal doors and frames.

Uniform application regardless of function.

Completely reversible for right-hand or left-hand doors.

Designed for ease of installation.

The name "Amerock" on the lock is your guarantee of excellence. To maintain the highest standards of quality all Amerock locks are fabricated from fine materials to strict control specifications in modern manufacturing facilities.

Due to our continuing program of product development and improvement, Amerock reserves the right to change product specifications without notice.